Change of Name: RungePincockMinarco Limited

Subsequent to approval being obtained from Shareholders at its Annual General Meeting on 23 November 2012, Runge Limited (ASX:RUL) has formally given notice to ASIC and has changed its name to RungePincockMinarco Limited (ASX:RUL) effective from today's date.

Richard Mathews, CEO today announced that Runge along with its wholly owned subsidiaries Pincock Allen & Holt (Americas) and Minarco-MineConsult (Asia Pacific) are relaunching globally with the new name RungePincockMinarco.

Mr Mathews said, "This name change sees Runge, the leader in mining software technology solutions; Pincock Allen & Holt, the leader in mining advisory in the Americas; and Minarco-MineConsult, Asia-Pacific's leading independent advisor in capital markets all uniting under a single global brand."

"We have grown quickly over the past 7 years primarily through acquisition. This growth has increased our global reach and I see this new brand as taking the best of the past and giving us a fresh forward looking approach."

"The industry will see a progressive company with global advisory and technical capabilities. I'm sure many of our clients will be surprised at the breadth and depth of the services and solutions our global network of industry experts can provide.

The name change is being progressively rolled out through the group's global offices, located in Australia, USA, Canada, South Africa, Indonesia, Malaysia, Mongolia, Russia, China, Hong Kong, Brasil and Chile.
